

House keepers

Havsvidden is a four-star resort on the northernmost tip of Åland. Guests and visitors come here for the amazing natural environment, the warm atmosphere, and the personal treatment Havsvidden offers. Its secluded location combined with the stunning views make the hotel unique.

In the main building you find our reception, bar, restaurant, lounge and facilities for conference and parties. Our guests can choose between accommodation in hotel rooms, cliff house or apartments. In the area we also have the guest harbor and our pool house with indoor pool, saunas and pool bar.

For the 2024 season, we are looking to expand our Havsvidden team with housekeepers for the hotel.

If you like to take responsibility, have an eye for details and want to make our hotel keep its high standard, then we trust that you are our new housekeeping colleague. We are looking for people who can work both independently and efficiently as well as have the ability to work cohesively as part of a team. You need to be highly responsible and reliable, have strong interpersonal and problem-solving abilities. In addition, we also want someone who loves to provide good service and is happy to send our guests a smile and a greeting along the way. We are looking forward to welcome you.
